TUESDAY IS MEMORIAL DAY!!

WANTED: One wheel-chair. One of our local boys is in need of a wheel-chair---and he needs it NOW. Eddie Brenzel, Jr., is paralyzed with a spinal injury--and must spend the next few years in a wheel-chair. If some citizen of Brisbane has a wheel-chair not now in use, won't you please come forward with it? Please contact your editor, or Maxine Mills, or Mrs. Eddie Brenzel, Sr. NOW IS YOUR CHANCE TO DO SOMETHING FOR SOMEONE WHO DESERVES HELP!

EDITOR'S CORNER:

PLEASE! I would like to reiterate my statement made in the very first issue of the BYLINE--I CANNOT AND WILL NOT TAKE SIDES IN ANY ISSUE, WHATSOEVER, political, or otherwise. This is only the sixth issue of the BYLINE, and already I have made enemies---simply because I have refused to print things about my neighbors which some person or persons insist on having printed. EVERY PERSON IN BRISBANE IS MY NEIGHBOR! And that goes for candidates for political offices, too! I also stated that I WOULD print the things that are sent to me in the form of OPEN LETTERS TO THE EDITOR--but I insisted that the writer's name be signed at the bottom of that letter. Some of you have criticized me for not printing the little insults and fancied slurs about which you have told me. When we issued the first copy---we told you that the BYLINE would be for the benefit of every citizen in Brisbane--and by EVERY citizen, we mean not only YOU but your neighbor, as well. Please bear with us in this policy, because in the long run it will benefit YOU even more than ourselves.

We would like to take this opportunity to commend Police Chief DAN CASE on the wonderful way in which he has cooperated in the gathering of donations for the Brisbane Athletic Club's baseball uniforms. We think he has done a swell job, and the boys will all be grateful for the uniforms when they arrive. We would also like to commend Dan on the good job he is doing on publicity for the coming WESTERN DAYS celebration. I think it is wonderful that a busy man like Chief Case can give so much of his time in order to make this thing a success.

NEWS & NOTES--QUIPS & QUOTES:

THE COMMUNITY PLAYERS:

On Friday and Saturday of last week, the local community players put on a play at the Brisbane Theater which kept the audience howling with laughter. The extra-curricular activities of various actors planted in the audience kept things going at a lively pace. Fred Schmidt, Sr., as the "Town Constibule" made history with his howls of "PUT THAT PAPER DOWN!" and "STOP THAT MAN!"----and the ensuing chases up and down the aisles with Schmidt in hot pursuit of something or someone or other almost stopped the show. The play itself was a hysterical travesty on the old "UNHAND THAT WOMAN, YOU VILLAIN!" type of meller-drama that Grampa and Grammaw used to cry buckets of tears over. "THE SAWING BEE" was complete even unto the Heroine who forgot her lines while the saw was creeping closer and closer. Dorothy Radoff as the heroine, Evelyn Thackerwack, was cute and pretty, and superb. The hero, Fred Schmidt, Jr., was handsome and stalwart as Elmer Horace Washup, and Raymond Burr as the (HISSSS! BOOOOO!) villain---Todd Wrinklebottom--made such a good villain that even the youngsters in the audience were

BONNIE BRISBANE sez:

With WESTERN DAYS one week away!

IN REGARDS THE WESTERN DAYS PARADE:

Entries are coming in fast for the Western Day's Parade---are YOU registered yet? It looks like a big parade is in the making. Remember, we want cowboys, cowgirls, western floats, horses, ponies, horse-drawn wagons, carriages, and so forth.

Prizes will be awarded in every class of western costumes. The prizes to be awarded may be seen in the window of the Gilman's Brisbane Drugstore. Be sure and register, if possible, at Laing's Fountain, Parade Headquarters.

Remember--you don't have to live in Brisbane to enter the parade and compete for the prizes. Tell your friends and relatives--LET'S ALL GO WESTERN!

It has been decided that the parade will start at 1 p.m. on Sunday, June 4th, the line of march starting at Klamath Ave and Visitacion (at the police department office), and will go down Visitacion to the Recreation Center.

The Brisbane Drum and Bugle Corps has reorganized and will be marching in the parade in western costumes.

THE DONKEY BASEBALL GAME WILL BE HELD ON SUNDAY AT THE RECREATIONAL BALL PARK, AT FOUR IN THE AFTERNOON. TEAMS PLAYING WILL BE THE V.F.W. AND A MYSTERY TEAM. ADMISSION TO THIS GAME WILL BE AS FOLLOWS:

Children-----30¢
Adults-------60¢ (tax included.)

The Donkeys will be seen in the parade immediately before the game, and there will be pony rides for the kids on all three days, June 2nd, 3rd, and 4th--- at 15¢ a ride, or two rides for 25¢-- around the park lagoon. Bring the childre down for a thrill during BRISBANE'S WEST-ERN DAYS CELEBRATION!

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE BOOK REVEIW: "THE TIDES OF DAWN" by E. Louise Mally. A tale of the Dutch Netherlands in the time of revolt from Spanish rule, for religious liberty and independent government. Men were prosecuted for singing the psalms in vernacular--for "heresy" in any form. Adults and children alike were burned at the stake for believing in God in their own ways, instead of in the way THE CHURCH stipulated. William, Prince of Orange, devoted himself to working with the Knights of the Fleece for the rights of the seventeen provinces of the Netherlands. Interwoven in the tale of Christian martydom are the love stories of the children who grow up in the troubled times. Young men of sixteen are betrothed to young girls of thirteen---young ladies of eight accept engagement rings from young lads of fourteen. Marriages are arranged by parents for the good of the family coffers. The struggle for existence, for the right to worship as one felt in his heart, for the right to love and to marry according to the dictates of his heart---all are told in this dry tale of pure history. But for the lover of authenticity---"THE TIDES OF DAWN" will fill that gap of forgotten history that was plowed under by the more colorful tales of French and Italian Revolutionary periods.

"AS THOU ART"

O Lord, I pray Thee--send me a Vision--
So I may see Thee, as Thou art
as at Thy feet I kneel.
Show me Thy Face, and make Thee real--

O Lord, I pray Thee--send me a Vision--
To lend me the peace, I seek,
of mind--that I may find
The courage I may need, to face Thee--
When comes the time to erase me
From the earthly things, and from my kind.

Unveil my eyes, tho' I be blind--thereafter--
It would matter not--
If I could but see Thee once--as Thou art.

O Lord, I see Thee--Thy Face descends upon me
I see Thee in Holy Light--Thy robes of silken flowing white--
Thine eyes divine are warm, but cold--
Thy hair of flowing rippling gold--

O Lord, I thank Thee for Thy Grace --
For showing me Thy Holy face!

booing him, and applauding the hero and heroine. I overheard one small boy in the center section say "I hope they cut him up in small pieces!" when the hero had tied the villain onto the saw in place of the heroine. The small faces around me had the look of absorbtion common with the old-time meller-drama audiences.

Tom Prease, as "Paw Thackerwack" was believable in his part, and Juanita Burgess as "Maw" was properly shy and home-bodyish. I never could figure out what it was she was tearing into strips, though. And right here I would like to offer my thanks to the powers behind the scene who put a copy of the BRISBANE BYLINE into the hands of Paw to read----naturally, that was the first thing I noticed!

During the second act, Frankie King's Barbershop Quartet doubled for bartender and traveling salesmen--bursting into song at the drop of a beer-mug. Frankie's masterful rendition of his so-called "one line in the play"---GO HOME LITTLE GIRL!!--should win some kind of oscar, or something. Gloria Wipprecht was a delightful world-weary bar hostess----with no man of her own---and her final scene of showing her scorn by chewing on an onion tickled my funny-bone tremendously. Barbara Mack gave a good and rhymetic tap dance, evoking appreciative whistles from the male half of the audience. The can-can girls were ELLEN WRIGHT, Ida Romrielle, Mrs. Bill Rook Senior, and Mrs. Bill Rook, Jr. Elsie Moore was one of the newspaper readers in the audience. Those in the barbershop quartet were Frank King, Clancy, Miles, and Duncan. Kay Prease made a delightful prima-donna, with her very capable rendition of "ONLY A BIRD IN A GILDED CAGE." Hazel Hoskins was disguised as a clean-up scrub woman in the audience. Others in the production were Mrs. Terry, Mr. Whitson, Peter Jenson, Wally Woodard, Betty Berkley, Lila Strassburger, Vera Blair, Mrs. Fred Schmidt, Sr., Mrs. Pistohl, Bob Boomer, and others.

Aunt Mattie, the sleepwalker in the play--was Mrs. Whitson, for those of you who didn't know! Mr. Whitson was the man who was called to the front to receive so many "door prizes". Beth Duncan gave out with the Mood music accompaniment.

Much of the credit must naturally go to Byron Jonsen, for her handling of the affair. Hers was also the voice of the child heard behind the scenes--calling "Is my father in there?" during the barroom scenes. A vote of thanks should also be given to Chris and Jim, the theater managers, for their cooperation, and to Ward, for handling the lighting effects. All in all, it was a huge success, and I only hope that we "can do this more often"!! Brisbane needs things like that to take our collective minds off our collective selves. Thanks, people--for giving us such a good show. We'll be waiting for the next one!

LOCAL YOUTH STRICKEN:

Young Eddie Brenzel, Jr., is now in the Lane Hospital in San Francisco--completely paralyzed. According to reports received here, the condition is from an old injury or illness, suffered some time ago. Young Eddie has suffered fainting spells for quite some time, and at first it was thought to be a brain tumor. Later reports disputed this. Eddie is allowed no visitors, but cards and letters may be sent to him in care of the Second West Ward at the Lane Hospital. Your editor suggests that something be done to help the Brenzels alleviate the terrific expenses, and to furnish young Eddie with a muchly needed wheel-chair. As soon as we learn more about young Eddie's condition, we will pass it on to you in these pages.

BASEBALL!!

The Brisbane A.C.-s played the St. Francis Church team at Flood Park last Sunday, and came out the winners, with a score of 11 to 5. The boys played very "heads-up" baseball, and worked very well together. The St. Francis team was supposed to be a pre-season favorite of the league, but in Sunday's game, Brisbane proved themselves by sticking together and playing that way they overcame such obstacles as age and size. Larry Blanchard pitched, getting eight strike-outs, and walked only three men. Larry had wonderful support from the team members, such as a beautfful bunt laid down by Richard Trantham--scoring Bob Butcher on a squeeze play.

Brisbane needs another tough team this coming Sunday, as they play the St. Aloysius team at Flood Park at 4 p.m. The local club would appreciate more support from the Brisbane residents at these Sunday games.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NEWS:

The Brisbane Fire Department responded to a call to fight their first grass fire of this season on Sunday, May 21st, about 2 p.m.--on the bank of the Bayshore Hiway towards the Icehouse--endangering the trucks of the Fairfield Trucking Co.

At 10:15 p.m. on May 22nd, a rubbish fire in the 300 block on King's Road was seen from the main streets of town---and as a stiff wind was blowing, the sight of the hillside flames caused some excitement.

We are again reminding you that our most hazardous season is rapidly approaching, and we again ask your cooperation in helping us eliminate the hazards by cutting away the grass around the fences and buildings, and cleaning up and hauling away rubbish piles. NO OPEN FIRES ARE ALLOWED!! Permits can be obtained at the firehouse for containers. All information pertaining to container fires will be given you when you receive your permit.

All container fires must be out by 1 p.m. each day. The Fire Marshall will inspect all containers.

WE WISH TO CONGRATULATE THE BRISBANE BYLINE FOR THEIR GOOD WORK AND FOR HELPING US TO GET THIS IMPORTANT NEWS TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

SIGNED--LOU TERRY, FIRECHIEF.

LOCAL RESIDENTS MOVING AWAY:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parrish of 1100 Humboldt Road are moving to San Carlos in the near future, where they have bought themselves a new home. We will miss our ex P.-T. A. President!! Dorothy promises to come back up often, though---before we are allowed to miss her too much.

BOX SOCIAL AND DANCE GIVEN:

Wednesday night's Box Social and Dance given at the Vis-Valley Club for the benefit of the Brisbane Athletic Club's baseball uniforms was a huge success--netting approximately forty dollars towards the price of the uniforms. Frances Gilman and Gladys Reece, aided by Mrs. Roland, Mrs. Trantham, Mrs. Delbon, and Mrs. Dan Case hosted the teen-agers in the fun and frolicking, and the ensuing auction of box lunches.

A vote of thanks will go to H. Wagner, for offering his Vis-Valley Club for the occasion, and to Orry Facchini and his orchestra for furnishing the dance music. Thanks go also to Tom Guzinsky for his help, and to Dan Case for his cooperation. Mrs. Scott, of the Fountain of Youth, and Mrs. Hazel McGarvin donated several boxes in order to meet the demand, which was more than the supply of box lunches on hand! Orry Facchini of the Hilltop Market has a wonderfully rhymetic orchestra--giving out with music good enough for a twelve piece orchestra---and with only two instruments---an accordian and a drum!

Plans are being made to hold more dances for the benefit of the local teen-agers, which is important----as most of our youth do not have "anyplace to go" during the summer months. These benefits are important to all of us, becuase it keeps our youngsters out of trouble, and off the streets!

(paid political adv.)

THIS IS A PAID POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

(This is a paid political advertisement on behalf of the "SPILLERS FOR SHERIFF" Committee, via Sturges & Associates, San Carlos, California.)

ELECT BOB SPILLERS SHERIFF IN THE JUNE 6 ELECTION!

Claiming that the only way to clean up San Mateo County and end the 23 year long "do-nothing" attitude of the present sheriff is to end organized gambling in the county, BOB SPILLERS lists the destruction of organized gambling in the county as the first of his four points for good government. Spillers, who is 39--a former all-American athlete--a Redwood City businessman and City Councilman--asks election as Sheriff on June 6th on a FOUR-POINT PLATFORM to insure good government:

FIRST, Spillers guarantees, he will destroy organized gambling when he is elected. Pointing out that the present sheriff's publicly known friendship for known gambling figures unfits him for the position as the county's chief law enforcement officer, Spillers declared the present sheriff is inefficient because the record shows that in his 23 years in office gambling has been permitted again and again.

SECOND, he will develop a program of juvenile aid to cooperate with other youth and law enforcement agencies in the county. Spillers has declared, "OUR CHILDREN ARE NOT VICIOUS. THEY ARE IDLE, TEMPTED BY THE GLITTERING EVIL WHICH STEMS DIRECTLY FROM ORGANIZED GAMBLING. I SHALL DEVELOP AN HONEST TO GOODNESS JUVENILE AID BUREAU IN THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE WHEN I AM ELECTED, TO CARRY ON THE WORK OF MAKING OUR CHILDREN DECENT CITIZENS---ONCE ORGANIZED GAMBLING IS ENDED IN OUR COUNTY."

THIRD, he will develop a more efficient, economical and protective system of sheriff's patrols and other law enforcement and crime preventive measures in the sheriff's office. "WITH MYSELF AS AN ACTIVE, AGGRESSIVE SHERIFF, THE DEPARTMENT'S EFFICIENCY CAN BE INCREASED WITH A REDUCTION, INSTEAD OF AN INCREASE IN COSTS TO THE TAXPAYERS."

FOURTH, Spillers promises that when he is elected his administration will develop a complete county Prison Farm Department, as an economy measure to cut prison costs, and as an efficiency measure--as well as a means of developing greater prisoner rehabilitation.

CONSIDER THESE FOUR POINTS CAREFULLY. A VOTE FOR BOB SPILLERS IS A VOTE FOR HONEST, CLEAN, RELIABLE LAW ENFORCEMENT! ELECT BOB SPILLERS SHERIFF IN THE JUNE 6th ELECTION!

and now consider the voice of the people--

the teen-agers

"WE MAY NOT BE OLD ENOUGH TO VOTE", says Tom Bean, of Redwood City, "BUT WE CAN SURE TELL OUR FOLKS AND THEIR FRIENDS WHY THEY SHOULD ELECT BOB AS SHERIFF. HE'S THE KIND OF ALL-AMERICAN SPORTSMAN, BUSINESSMAN, & PUBLIC OFFICIAL WE NEED IN GOVERNMENT!"

the women-voters

"A vote for Bob Spillers", says Mrs. Jeanne Levey of San Mateo, "Is your insurance that good goverment will return to San Mateo County. We women voters are really crusading for his election as sheriff, because we believe in his sincerity, honesty, and integrity, and because we feel he has the experience and know-how to administer the county's most important law enforcement office in an honest, clean, decent, and efficient manner."

we all say------

ELECT BOB SPILLERS AS SHERIFF IN THE JUNE 6 ELECTION!!
